BEHAVIORAL HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES CAREER FAIR AT THE BUFFALO NIAGARA CONVENTION CENTER SLATED FOR JUNE 7TH

Attendees encouraged to bring their resume, be prepared for on-site interviews

ERIE COUNTY, NY— The Buffalo Niagara Convention Center on Franklin Street in downtown Buffalo will be the site for the Behavioral Health & Human Services Career Fair, scheduled to take place on Wednesday, June 7th.

Hosted by the Erie County Department of Mental Health, the event will feature over 50 different participating agencies. The career fair will take place during two different time periods: 11am to 2pm; and 4pm to 6pm.

The list of all participant agencies with links to their employment opportunities can be found online by visiting: <https://www3.erie.gov/mentalhealth/behavioral-health-human-services-career-fair>

Applicants are asked to bring printed copies of their resume and be prepared for potential on-site interviews, with many of the agencies seeking new employees actively recruiting for an array of positions at various skill levels.

The Buffalo Niagara Convention Center, located at 153 Franklin St. in Buffalo, is accessible to people with disabilities. Handicapped meter parking will be available on Franklin Street, Pearl Street and other surrounding streets. Any guests or clients with special needs are asked to contact the BNCC Administrative Office at (716) 855-5555 so the appropriate accommodations can be made.
