Center for Employment Opportunities (CEO): CEO offers individuals just coming home from prison the ongoing support necessary to build career capital and financial stability. CEO's program is designed to reduce both systemic and behavioral barriers to employment among individuals involved in the criminal justice system. CEO targets its services to individuals who face the highest risk of returning to prison and have the greatest need for employment services. The program ensures that individuals under criminal justice supervision are prepared to re-enter the workforce and seize the opportunity to build healthier, more productive lives.
